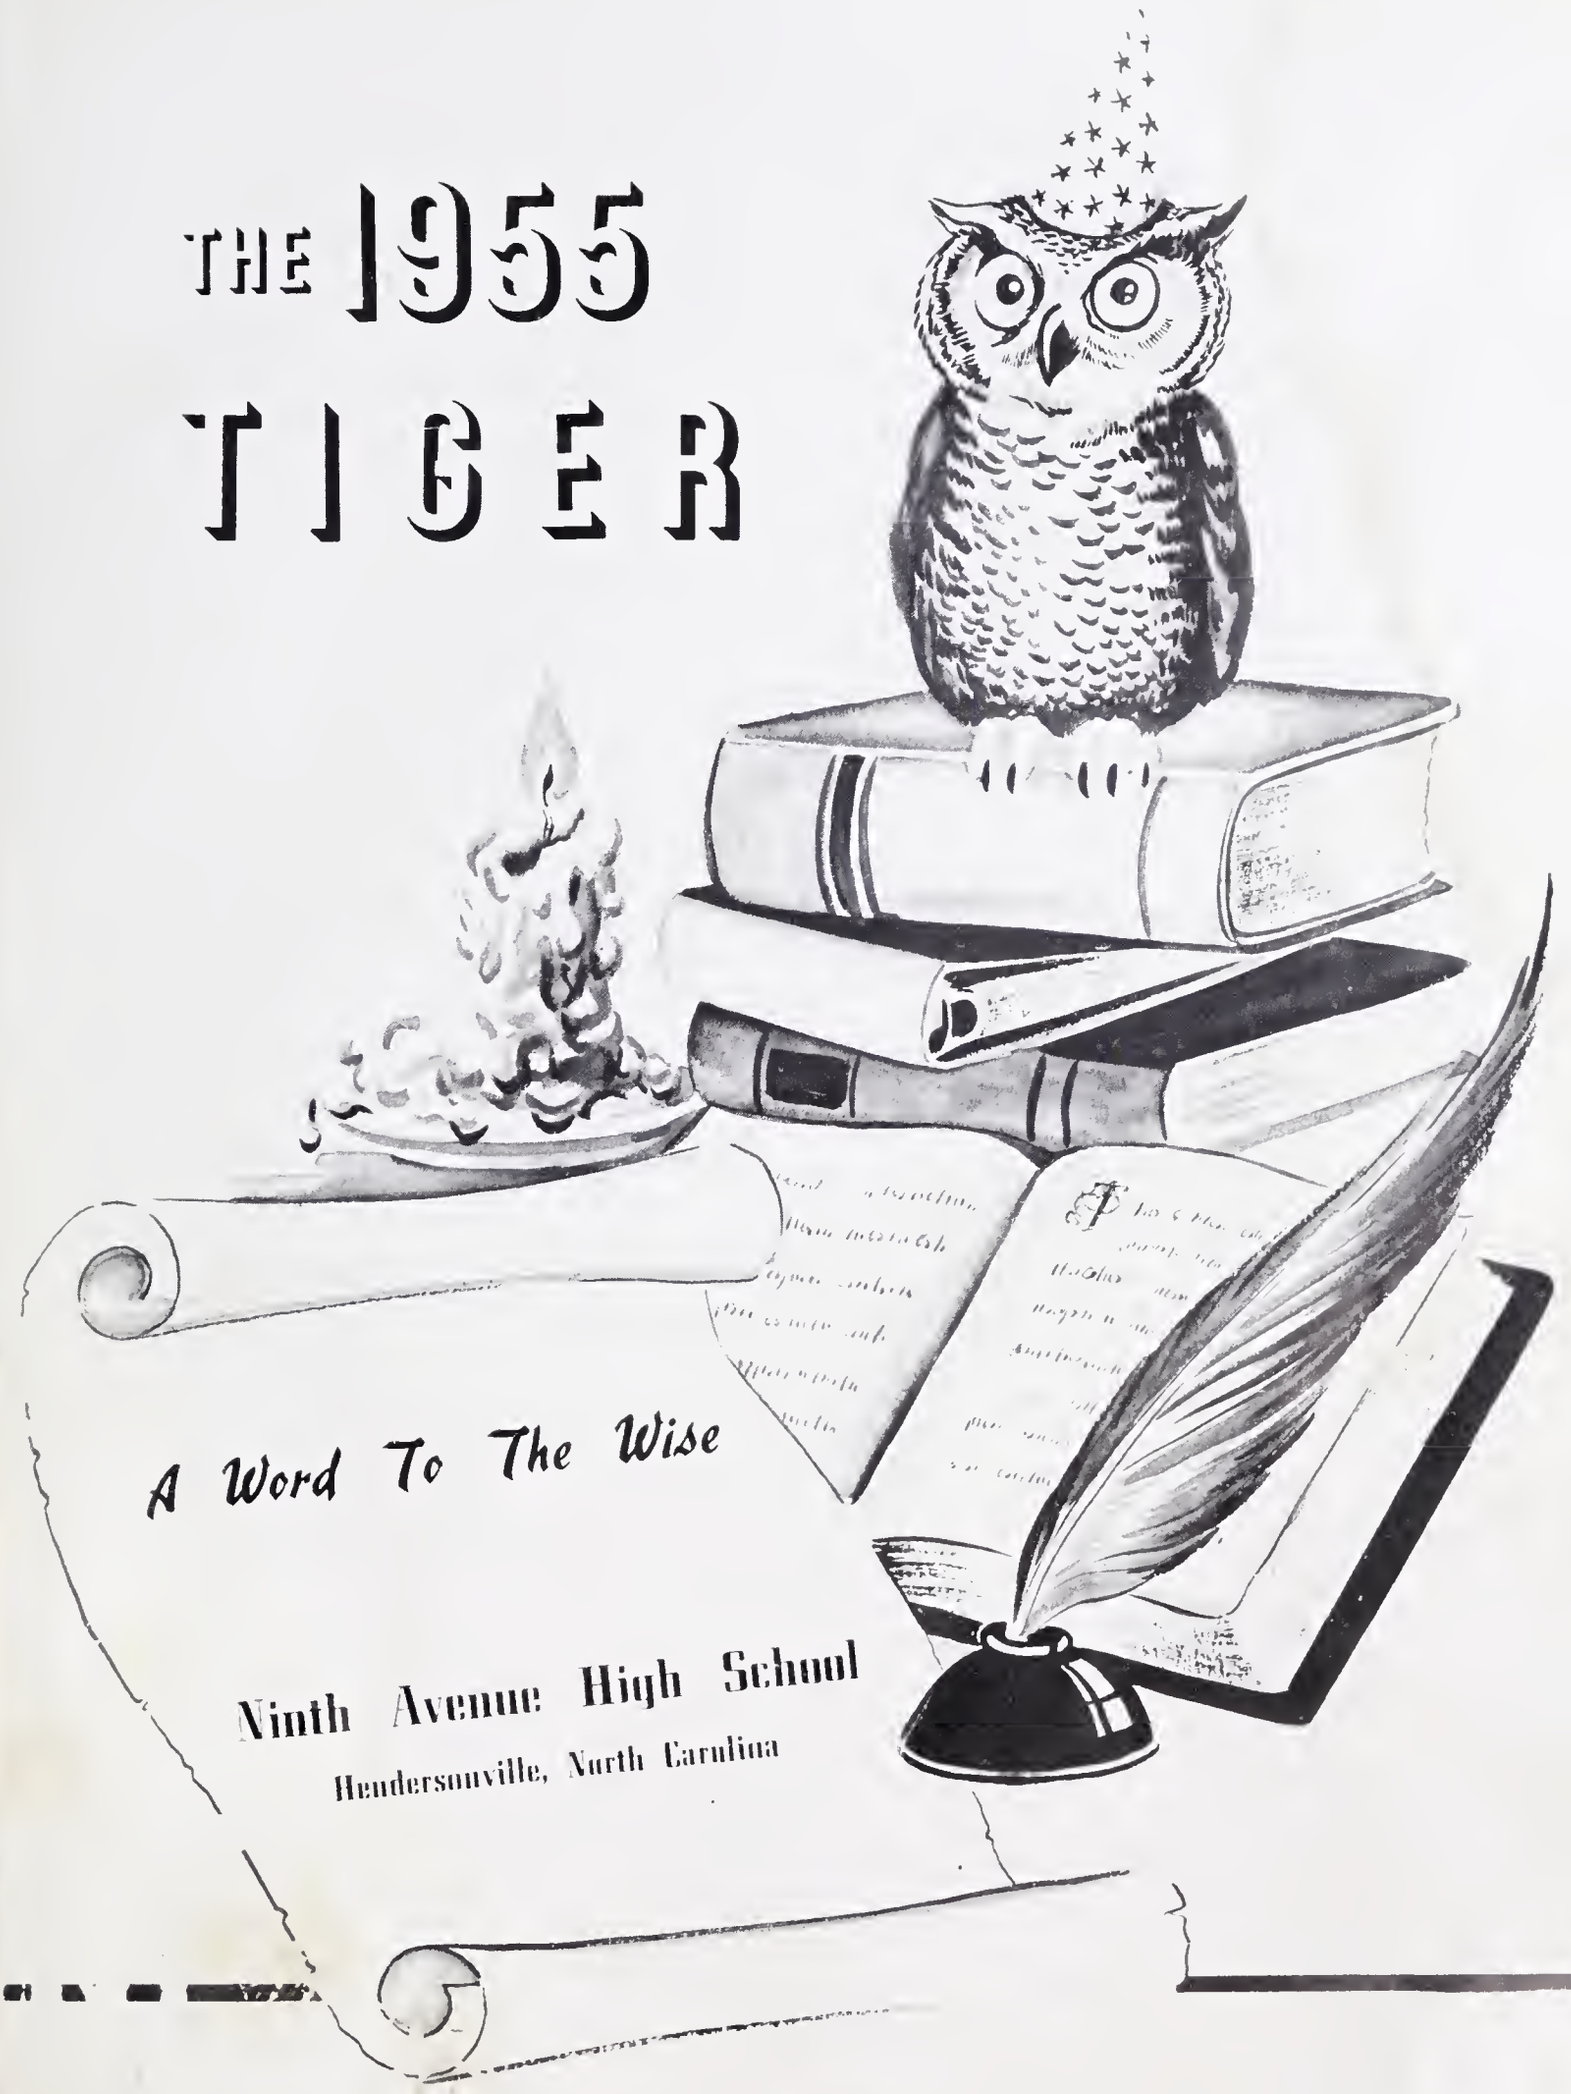
THE 1955 TIGER



A Word To The Wise

Ninth Avenue High School

Hendersonville, North Carolina

FOREWORD

as the years pass.....

it is easy to forget the days of high school .....
that were joyous and happy .....
lest we forget the excitement we felt as freshmen .....
it's easy to forget our sophomore days .....
"old hands now" .....
it's easy to forget the days as dignified juniors .....
"upper classmen now"
working on the junior-senior prom .....
it's easy to forget this our happiest year .....
"proud, sophisticated seniors" we were .....
and finally graduation.

The purpose of this, our TIGER, is to give you the highlights of our memories, to record our efforts, exciting events ..... and unforgettable experiences. If this has been done, this is only one of the many things we've strived to do, we are now on the road to success.

DEDICATION

KEYS TO OUR HEARTS

OUR PARENTS

"Thou art our parents, the nurses of our souls
We are being molded to manhood by thee
Till freighted with treasure, thoughts, friendships and hopes Thou willst launch us out on destiny's sea".

With the sentiment of the above quotation to guide us as we begin the second epoch, we dedicate this the sixth edition of THE TIGER to the best friends that we have ever known, ever had; or shall ever know --------- Our Parents.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. JOHN R. MARABLE, Principal

"There's a time for big things, a time for small things, and a time for some things, and a time for all things." Now that our four years at Ninth Avenue are drawing to a close, we feel that this is the time to express our gratitude to you, Mr. Marable, for the wonderful help and guidance that you have given to us all.

SUPERINTENDENT

HUGH D. RANDALL

MEMORIAM

It is with humble sincerity that this edition of the Tiger pay tribute to the memory of a former member of the faculty of Ninth Avenue, Mrs. Eula B. Owens. A true friend to all, a most conscientious and diligent worker are some of the many qualities possessed by her. Her death, although untimely it might have been, leaves a void that will be difficult to fill, but we feel that the school and community are much better because of her life.

TIGERS CLAW S. C. ELEVEN

The Ninth Avenue High School Tigers gave their school a perfect homecoming with a 29-0 win over Wellford, S. C., at the high school stadium last night.

The game was bitterly contested by a scrapping South Carolina eleven most of the way with the Tigers breaking away for three touchdowns and adding three extra points to ice the game in the fourth period.

The Tigers scored a TD in the first period but failed to add the extra point. A safety was added in the second period and the Hendersonville boys went to the dressing room at intermission with an 8-point lead.

Neither team was able to score in the third and the Tigers were going away in the fourth period.

Cleveland Nesbitt tallied twice for the Tigers and Cary Booker and Mack Garden once apiece. Nesbitt and Gardin added the extra points by rushing.

The football game was the climax for the annual Home Coming ceremonies which began with a street parade of bands and floats during the afternoon. The Stephens Lee band from Asheville joined the local musicians for the parade and also for the halftime ceremony at the stadium.

A dance at the school auditorium after the game ended the day's program.

Tigers Down S. C. Team By 20-To-6 Score

The Ninth Avenue Tigers ended their 1954 grid season last night at the high school stadium with a 20-6 victory over Fair Forest, S. C.

The game was hard-fought throughout and featured the running of Cleveland Nesbitt.

The Tigers scored late in the first period when Nesbitt faded to pass, found his receivers covered, and raced 30 yards behind good blocking for the first score. Gardin kicked the extra point.

In the third quarter, Nesbitt reeled off a 62-yard run from the Tigers 8-yard line. After two first downs, fullback Smith bucked over from the four. Gardin again kicked the point.
